

Psalm 119:73-80

Dear God,
I come before You today with a humble heart, asking for Your guidance and understanding. You have created me with Your own hands, and I trust that You know me better than I know myself. I ask that You grant me understanding so that I may learn and follow Your commandments.

May those who fear You see me and rejoice because I have put my hope in Your Word. I acknowledge that Your rules are righteous. Even when You allow me to go through afflictions, I trust that You do it in faithfulness.

I pray that Your steadfast love will comfort me, just as You promised Your servant. May Your mercy come to me, that I may live a life pleasing to You, as Your law is my delight.

Please put to shame those who have wronged me with falsehood, and let me meditate on Your precepts. May those who fear You turn to me, that they may also know Your testimonies.

Above all, I pray that my heart will be blameless in Your statutes, so that I may not be put to shame. Thank You for Your love and faithfulness, and for hearing my prayer.

In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.
