

today's prayer

Psalm 130

Gracious and Merciful Father,

From the depths of my soul, I cry out to You, O Lord! Hear my voice as it reaches the heights of Your presence. I come before You with humble pleas for Your boundless mercy. May Your ears be attentive to the sincerity of my prayers.

Lord, if You were to mark every wrongdoing, every transgression, who could stand before You? None of us would be able to withstand the weight of our iniquities. Yet, in Your infinite love and compassion, You offer us forgiveness. You desire to be revered and honored, and in the face of Your mercy, we find a reason to fear and worship You.

My soul waits for You, O Lord. In the depths of my being, I long for Your presence and Your guidance. I place my hope in Your Word, for in it, I find rest and direction. My anticipation for You surpasses that of watchmen eagerly awaiting the dawning of a new day. I yearn for the light of Your presence to shine upon my path.

My fellow believers also find and place their hope in You, Lord. For in You, we find an unending wellspring of steadfast love. It is through Your love that we experience redemption in abundance. You alone have the power to deliver us from the shackles of our iniquities.

Thank You, Heavenly Father, for Your immeasurable grace and forgiveness. May my soul never weary of waiting on You. May I continue to seek Your guidance, and place my hope in Your faithful promises. Redeem me, O Lord, from all my transgressions and lead me on the path of righteousness.

In the name of Jesus, my Savior, I pray.

Amen.
