

today's prayer

Psalm 131

Loving and Gracious Heavenly Father,

In Your presence, I humbly come before You with a heart that is not lifted up in pride. I acknowledge that I am but a humble servant in Your sight. I do not seek to occupy myself with things that are beyond my understanding, for You alone are the One who knows all things, great and marvelous.

Instead, I choose to quiet my soul in Your presence. Like a weaned child finds rest and comfort in the arms of its mother, I find peace and stillness in You, my Heavenly Father. In Your presence, I lay down my worries, my fears, and my burdens. I trust that You will provide, protect, and guide me in Your perfect wisdom. Guide me in the paths of righteousness in your perfect time.

Lord, just as a weaned child is content and at rest in the arms of its mother, so is my soul in You. I surrender my desires for control and surrender to Your divine will. Help me find stillness in the midst of life's chaos, to trust in Your provision, and rest in Your loving care.

My my family also place their hope in You. May this hope extend beyond this present generation and remain steadfast forevermore. As we quiet our souls before our God, may we find lasting peace and unshakable trust in Him who holds the universe in His hands, now and forever.

Thank You, Heavenly Father, for the peace that surpasses all understanding. May I continue to find rest in Your presence and confidently place my hope in You.

In the name of Jesus, my Prince of Peace, I pray.

Amen.
